

5

Sports

Vocabulary

famous 有名な benefits 利点

few 少ししかない

prefer むしろ～を好む

comfortable 快適な

envy うらやむ

difficult 難しい

practice 練習する

indoor 室内の outdoor 屋外の
box ボクシング

Dialogue

Andre: Do you know how to play tennis?

Paul: Yes. My brother taught me.

Andre: I envy you. Could you please teach me how to play tennis?

Paul: Sure. No problem.

Andre: Really? Thanks a lot.

Paul: Don't mention it. When do you want to start?

Andre: Maybe on Saturday.

Paul: Saturday is perfect! See you then!

Andre: See you!

 Expressions

No problem

問題ありません。

No worries

Hope to see you then.

Don't worry about it.

Don't mention it.

Not at all.

Thanks a lot.

どうもありがとう。

Many thanks.

Thank you so much.

Saturday is perfect.

Saturday is an ideal day to...

Okay, we'll do it on Saturday.

 Dialogue

Tyson: You box very well, Manny!

Manny: Thanks.

Tyson: How can you box so well?

Manny: I started boxing when I was young.

Tyson: Really? Isn't boxing difficult?

Manny: Not really. You just have to practice a lot.

Tyson: How often do you practice?

Manny: I practice 4 hours a day.

Tyson: Wow! No wonder, you are a great boxer!

Expressions

I envy you.

私はあなたがうらやましい。
I am envious of you.

No wonder.

～に疑いの余地がない。

- o You are only wearing a small tee-shirt. No wonder you are cold.
- o He's always late for work. It's no wonder that his boss is unhappy with him.

Exercise

Match a Lingo to its corresponding Sport.

Lingo/Player name Sport's Name

Strikeout

Rebound

Touchdown

Power Play

Tiger Woods

Kei Nishikori

Yoshie Takeshita

Golf

Hockey

Football

Baseball

Basketball

Volleyball

Tennis